

WHEREAS, these men and women share a common bond of having answered their Nation's call to serve and did so loyally, with valor and will never forget the indelible effects of war; and

WHEREAS, reflection upon this strength of common experience has rekindled the veteran's sense of duty and leadership; and

WHEREAS, November 11 is traditionally known as Veterans Day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim the month of November 1982 as "Veterans Call to Unity Month", a call to unity of all California citizens by the veterans who have contributed greatly to the security and welfare of the nation and of the State of California particularly, and urge all Californians--citizens, veterans, and veterans groups alike--to work toward common goals, benefits, and recognition through the events and celebrations commemorating this period.

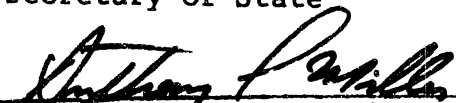

"...therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 17th day of August 1982

Governor of California
