PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the purpose of the Holiday Project is to encourage and enhance public appreciation and participation in sharing the holiday spirit with all the members of our community; and

WHEREAS, during the last ten years, the Holiday Project has enabled 65,000 volunteers to visit 25,000 institutions nationally and provide gifts, food and companionship for the residents in these institutions; and

WHEREAS, in California, The Holiday Project expects that over 7,500 volunteers from the general public will visit over 80 institutions and reach more than 58,000 individuals during this 1981 Hanukkah and Christmas season; and

WHEREAS, The Holiday Project, in the true spirit of this special season, offers an organized way for individuals to voluntarily give their time and their talents for the benefit of the less fortunate in our society, and

WHEREAS, The State of California acknowledges and supports the Holiday Project in bringing the spirit of the Holidays to those residing in its institutions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edmund G. Brown Jr., Governor of the State of California do hereby proclaim Tuesday, December 22, 1981 as Holiday Project Day in California.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 22d day of December, 1981.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
Governor of California
