PROCLAMATION
STATE OF EMERGENCY

I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, find that on or about May 1, 1979, conditions of extreme peril to the safety of persons and property exist within that portion of the County of San Bernardino lying southerly and westerly of a line beginning at the intersection of the boundary line between San Bernardino and Los Angeles Counties and the north line of Township 3 North, Range 7 West, SBB & M, thence east along the township line to the northeast corner of Section 3, Township 3 North, Range 6 West, thence southerly and easterly following the boundary line between San Bernardino and Riverside Counties.

I further find that these emergency conditions are as a result of a sudden and serious gasoline shortage at retail outlets and other consumer gasoline purchasing problems causing extreme traffic hazards and injury to persons and property and which, by reason of their magnitude, are beyond the control of the services, personnel, equipment and facilities of said county. Having been advised by the Chairperson of the Board of Supervisors of said County that they have declared a state of local emergency, I, therefore, proclaim the existence of a state of emergency in the aforementioned portion of San Bernardino County.

I hereby incorporate, by reference, the regulations pertaining to the California gasoline emergency filed with the Secretary of State on the 8th day of May, 1979, and all subsequent amendments thereto and issue these regulations pursuant to Section 8567 of the California Government Code. These regulations shall apply to the aforementioned area of San Bernardino County in which a state of emergency exists.

I direct this program shall begin at 0001 hours, May 9, 1979, in the aforementioned County.

I direct that as soon hereafter as possible this proclamation be filed in the Office of the Secretary of State and that widespread publicity and notice be given to this proclamation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 8th day of May 1979.
