State of California

P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, the civic bodies and service organizations of our State and the Departments of our State Government recognize the great services rendered to this State by the California State Junior Chamber of Commerce;

AND WHEREAS, the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce and its affiliated State and local organizations have set aside the week of January 18-25 to observe the founding of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and to commemorate such founding by the selection of the five outstanding young men of this State as the recipients of Distinguished Service Awards for their contribution to the State of California during the past year;

AND WHEREAS, this organization of young men has contributed materially to the betterment of the State of California throughout the year through its outstanding work in the field of civic improvement and youth welfare;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Edmund G. Brown, Governor, do hereby proclaim the week of January 18-25, 1959, as JAYCEE WEEK in the State of California and urge the citizens of our State to give full consideration to the fine services of this organization.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 16th day of January, A.D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-nine.

Edmund G. Brown
Governor
