PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, an extraordinary occasion has arisen and now exists requiring that the Legislature of the State of California be convened in extraordinary session, now, therefore,

I, EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested by Section 9 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of California, do hereby convene the Legislature of the State of California to meet in extraordinary session at Sacramento, California, on the twenty-fifth day of June, 1965, at 12 o'clock of said day to legislate upon the following subjects:

Item 1. To consider and act upon legislation to provide revenues for the General Fund.

Item 2. To consider and act upon legislation relative to public medical assistance to indigent persons.

Item 3. To consider and act upon legislation relative to the creation of a State park in the vicinity of Lake Tahoe.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed hereto this twenty-fourth day of June, 1965.
