Executive Department
State of California

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Legislature of the State of California has been called in extraordinary session and has convened on February 10, 1966; and

WHEREAS, on account of extraordinary occasions which have arisen and now exist, it is deemed desirable and necessary to submit additional subjects to the Legislature for consideration; now, therefore,

I, EDMUND G. BROWN, Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the power vested in me by law, hereby amend and supplement my Proclamation dated February 9, 1966, by adding the following additional purposes thereto, and thereby permitting the Legislature to legislate upon the following subjects, in addition to the subjects specified in the original Proclamation, to wit:

Item No. 37. To consider and act upon legislation relative to accounting procedures used by the state with respect to revenues.

Item No. 38. To consider and act upon legislation relative to the Water Conservation District Law of 1931.

Item No. 39. To consider and act upon legislation relative to creating a Department of Harbors and Navigation and a Harbors and Navigation Commission.

Item No. 40. To consider and act upon legislation relative to financial assistance to public libraries.

Item No. 41. To consider and act upon legislation relative to the disposition of traffic fines and forfeitures.

Item No. 42. To consider and act upon legislation relative to division of the State Employees' Retirement System to provide coverage under the Social Security Act for employees of public school districts.

Item No. 43. To consider and act upon legislation relative to the forfeiture of vehicles to the state.
