State of California

AMENDED RULE NO. 1

In the light of the state of extreme emergency now existing in the County of Los Angeles, and pursuant to the authority vested in me to promulgate, issue and enforce rules, resulations and orders, I deem the following rule and regulation necessary for protection of life and property and hereby amend Rule No. 1 as previously issued on August 14, 1965, by Acting Governor Glenn M. Anderson, to be effective immediately as amended, as follows:

CURFEW:

No person shall be upon the public street, avenue, alley, park or other public place or unimproved private realty within the area bounded as follows:

> Starting at the intersection of Washington Boulevard and Alameda Street, then proceeding westerly to Flower Street, then south on Flower Street to Adams Boulevard, then westerly on Adams Boulevard to Crenshaw Boulevard, then southerly on Crenshaw Boulevard to Florence Avenue, then easterly on Florence Avenue to Van Ness Avenue, southerly on Van Ness Avenue to Rosecrans Avenue, then easterly on Rosecrans Avenue to Alameda, northerly on Alameda Street to the starting point, all named streets included, between the hours of 8:00 p.m. and the time of sunrise of the following day.

This curfew shall not apply to policemen, peace officers, firemen, other emergency personnel or civilians engaged in police or emergency work. This rule shall not apply to authorized representatives of any news service, newspaper, or radio or television station or network.

Any violation of this rule shall be punished as provided by Section 1600 of the Military and Veterans Code.

This rule shall remain in effect until such time as it is rescinded.

Dated: August 15, 1965.
