EXECUTIVE ORDER B-6-75

WHEREAS, it is the responsibility of the State of California to maintain a high degree of preparedness in the event of an earthquake, flood, fire, riot, epidemic, attack by a foreign power and other emergencies.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, by virtue of the powers and authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of this State and in accordance with the provisions of sections 8567 and 8595 of the Government Code, do hereby rescind Executive Order No. R-35-71 and do hereby issue this Order to become effective immediately.

1. The Director, Office of Emergency Services, who is also the State Director of Emergency Planning and the State Director of Civil Defense, is responsible for preparation of the State of California Emergency Plan and the submission thereof, through the California Emergency Council, to me for approval.
2. The head of each department, bureau, board, commission and independent institution of the State Government, hereinafter referred to as an agency, is responsible for the emergency planning and preparedness of his Agency.
3. Specific assignment of emergency functions to a given agency will be made in an Administrative Order by the Director, Office of Emergency Services, and with the concurrence of the respective agency head.
4. Draft copies of agency procedures designed to carry out emergency assignments shall be submitted to the Director, Office of Emergency Services, for review prior to publication.
5. Each agency shall prepare for and ensure:
  - a. Protection of its personnel, equipment, supplies, facilities, and vital public records against the destructive forces of nature or man.
  - b. The utilization of minimum resources required for continuation of normal services and redirection of all other resources to
