

Executive Department
State of California

Once more, at a time when the earth and the life upon it are renewed after the rigors of winter, Holy Week comes to the Christian world.

It means the renewal of hope and strength in man after a long season of doubt and hardship. It offers a rebirth of belief in the dignity of man and the value of life to a world in which the continuing threat of devastation debases those beliefs.

Now, therefore, I, Edmund G. Brown, Governor of California, do hereby proclaim April 12, 1963, GOOD FRIDAY, throughout our state and call upon all citizens of the Christian faith to observe this day with reverence.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 10th day of April, A.D., One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Three.

Edmund G. Brown
Governor
