of the State of California

FEB 6 - 1982

MARCH FONG EU, Secretary of State

By Maureen R. Kerkhugan
Deputy

Executive Department
State of California

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the challenge of the coming decade will be to train our people for the careers of the 1980's as the new technologies of microprocessors, robotics, satellite communications and biotechnology sweep across our economy; and

WHEREAS, it is important to provide job-based training leading directly to employment not only to new students but also to displaced workers and to those who have been thrown onto welfare rolls; and

WHEREAS, the responsibility for providing this training falls to our professional educators at every level; and

WHEREAS, the ability of our schools to provide this necessary training requires the support of a coalition of government, labor, business and the general public;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edmund G. Brown Jr., Governor of the State of California, do hereby join in observing February 7-13, 1982 as "Vocational Education Week" in this state and ask all Californians to join with me in supporting vocational education in our schools.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 4th day of February 1982

EM G Brown
Governor of California
