PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Women in Film was founded for the purpose of encouraging women to become active in the motion picture industry and contribute their special creativity to this medium; and

WHEREAS, women in ever increasing numbers have become active participants in this industry as writers, producers, directors and as major forces in all other elements of film production; and

WHEREAS, films are enjoying increased popularity because they not only entertain us but also give us an opportunity to better understand ourselves and the world in which we live; and

WHEREAS, the motion picture industry has always been of particular importance and significance to California and her citizens; and

WHEREAS, the Women in Film organization is holding its Sixth Annual Crystal Awards Luncheon on June 4, 1982;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EDMUND G. BROWN JR., Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim June 4, 1982 as Women in Film Day and take this opportunity to salute all those women who are active in the film industry for the positive contributions they have made to our state and nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 26th day of May 1982.

Edmund G. Brown Jr.
Governor of California
