

The California State Library Presents:
A Special Noontime Discussion with Author/Journalist Sasha Abramsky
on his Latest Book, *The House of Twenty Thousand Books

Where: Stanley Mosk Library and Courts Building, 914 Capitol Mall, Gillis Hall - 3rd Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814

When: Thursday, March 17, Noon - 2pm

What: Critically acclaimed author/journalist Sasha Abramsky will discuss his latest book, a touching memoir about his grandparents and their amazing house filled with books. Originally from England, Sasha Abramsky now makes his home in Sacramento. His work as a journalist has appeared in The Nation, The Atlantic Monthly, New York Magazine, Rolling Stone and many others. He's written several books including Inside Obama's Brain, The American Way of Poverty: How the Other Half Still Live, and Breadline USA: The Hidden Scandal of American Hunger and How to Fix It.

This event is free. No RSVP required but for more information contact:

Deborah Lynch - 916-651-6452 or Deborah.lynch@library.ca.gov.

Feel free to bring your lunch. This will be an interactive, open-ended discussion so you can come and go as needed. We hope to see you there!

About the California State Library Founded in 1850, the California State Library is the central reference and research library for the Governor's office, Legislature, state employees, and the general public. The State Library leads and promotes innovative library services by providing and managing state and federal funding programs to ensure all Californians have access via their libraries to information and educational resources.

#