EXPLORING THE SUTRO LIBRARY:

TREASURES FROM THE Yemenite Hebraica COLLECTION

13th TO 19th CENTURY YEMENITE HEBREW SCROLLS & MANUSCRIPTS

- Scrolls with talismans to ward off the evil eye or to promote fertility
- Medieval books
- Pentateuch and Esther scrolls
- Bound vellum manuscripts

Adolph Sutro, San Francisco mayor from 1895–1897, purchased the collection (150 works) in Jerusalem in 1884 from the estate of Moses Shapira, a famous antiquities dealer.

Shapira – who tried to sell a "lost book of the Bible" to the British Museum – is the subject of a new work by SFSU professor Chanan Tigay, The Lost Book of Moses.

EXHIBIT OPEN
10am – 5pm, M – F
through June 2016

J. Paul Leonard Library – Sutro Library
5th Floor Reading Room
1630 Holloway Avenue, SF 94132

For more information: 415-469-6100 or sutro@library.ca.gov
Where to Park? Find out at http://www.sfsu.edu/~sfsumap/

California State Library
Preserving Our Heritage, Shaping Our Future