California History Section
900 N Street Room 200
9:30-4 Monday-Friday
Organized in 1850, El Dorado County had an estimated population of 190,678 people as of 2018. Typically known for its Gold Rush history, this region is not only home to Coloma, the Mother Lode gold discovery site, but also to the only surviving Pony express stable in California, and one of California’s most prominent trans-Sierra passes. It also claims partial jurisdiction over Lake Tahoe, and boasts a number of different historical societies and historic preservation organizations. If you are looking for exciting local history resources in the California History Section’s rich collections, then check out what we have for this county!
