Formed in 1851, Placer County had a population of 386,186 people as of 2017. Though typically known for its natural beauty, from expansive oak woodlands to pristine rivers and lakes, there is more to this region than just stunning landscapes. Placer boasts an impressive wine country, along with an equally impressive past as a major mining hub during the Gold-Rush Era. If you are looking for exciting local history resources in the California History Section's rich collections, then check out what we have for this county!

On-Site Research Resources

Our collection predates computers and so do some of our access points! If you are in the library, be sure to check the following analog files for leads on more resources.

California Information File
In the library? Check the California Information File before you do anything else! This file indexes over 130 years of California articles, books, and manuscript collections from all 58 counties.

Subject Headings: Counties: Placer

Map File
Looking for a Placer county map? Our map file is a great place to start. We have a wide variety of maps, including Sanborn fire insurance maps. Some of our maps cover settlement patterns and even natural history.

Subject Headings: Counties: Placer

Photographic File
Sometimes a picture is worth a 1000 words and not all of our pictures are online. To check the rest of the collection search our picture file card catalog.

Subject Headings: Counties: Placer
Despite our best efforts, some of our resources defy complete description. We suggest that you ask a librarian about Placer county information contained in the following resources.

Vertical Files

Our massive collection of vertical files covers a wide variety of topics including individual counties. You can check them for pamphlets, certificates and even posters related to organizations, individuals, and area histories.

Subject Headings: Counties: Placer

Postcard Files

Separate from our photo collection, our postcard collection contains a number of images related to Placer County. Most are not online.

Subject Headings: Placer County
