

2008/09 LSTA – California of the Past Digital Storytelling Program

This pilot program provides libraries and their staff with a digital story station and the skills and technical knowledge needed to implement a local digital storytelling program. This program helps participating libraries engage baby boomers, patrons of all ages, diverse cultures, and other community groups in creating digital stories on the history of the local community, and of California, which is freely accessible on the Web.

Continuing Libraries	Award
Benicia Public Library	$5,000
Covina Public Library	$3,000
Hayward Public Library	$5,000
Orange County Public Libraries	$5,000
Sacramento Public Library	$5,000
South San Francisco Public Library	$5,000

New Libraries	Award
Alameda Free Library	$10,000
Escondido Public Library	$10,000
Lincoln Public Library	$10,000
Murrieta Public Library	$10,000
Oakland Public Library	$10,000
Pomona Public Library	$10,000
Roseville Public Library	$10,000
San Jose Public Library	$10,000
Solano County Library	$10,000
Sunnyvale Public Library	$10,000
Sutter County Library	$10,000
Yolo County Library	$10,000