

COMPASS funding and The California State Library / Riverside County Office of Education partnership

Summary

COMPASS from the California State Library (the California Online Media Program for Access and Student Success) is funded through an allocation to the Riverside County Office of Education in the state's education budget – Item 6100-172-0001, schedule 2.

More Details

COMPASS from the California State Library (the California Online Media Program for Access and Student Success) is funded through an allocation to the Riverside County Office of Education in the state's education budget – Item 6100-172-0001, schedule 2, “5205229 Online Educational Resources” with the following provision: “The funds used in Schedule (2) shall be used at the direction of the State Librarian to make online educational resources publicly available.”

See <https://ebudget.ca.gov/2024-25/pdf/Enacted/GovernorsBudget/6000.pdf> page 15.

Further information may be found in the California Department of Education's apportionment letter from October 2023 Ltr1-23: Student Friendly Services \(CA Dept of Education\) with additional information at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/ca/studentfriendly.asp>.

Background information about the launch of the program is included in the press release from 2018-19, when it was referred to as the K-12 Online Resources Program from the California State Library: K-12OnlineContentPressReleaseAnnouncementOfVendors.pdf

Comprehensive Website – <https://compass.library.ca.gov>