GENERAL RESEARCH TIPS

While many of our materials are online, even more are only in hard-copy. You can use the following resources to learn about our Ventura County resources.

Catalog

If you are looking for Ventura County materials your best source is our catalog. You can do a general search on the catalog but also be sure to check out our specialized resources on page 8 of this research guide!

Type in Subject Box: (Ventura)

California Information File II

Sometimes the catalog doesn't provide as much detail as you might like. This is why we created the California Information File II, successor to the analog California Information File I. In this resource, you can find indexing to individual articles, as well as Ventura County menus, deeds, pamphlets and more!

Type in Search Box:

1. Ventura
2. Name of a city in Ventura County

GENERAL RESEARCH TIPS

The screenshot shows a search form titled "City and County Directories". It includes a header with a blue background and a cityscape image. Below the header, there is a search instruction: "Enter one or more search terms. The more terms you enter, the fewer results you will get." and a tip: "To search for a range of years, type a colon between the years, e.g., 1940-1950." The form contains several input fields: "County", "City", "Year", "Title", "Author", "Publisher", and "Material type". Each field has a small "GO" button next to it. At the bottom, there is a "Submit Query" button and a "Help" icon.

City Directories

Looking for a person? How about the history of a location? You can trace this information and more via our city directories! See what we have by checking our specialized database.

Type in Search Box:

1. Ventura
2. Name of a city in Ventura County

The screenshot shows a search form titled "Telephone Directories". It includes a header with a blue background and a telephone keypad image. Below the header, there is a search instruction: "Type in the city or county. If you get too many results, add the year to your search." and a tip: "To search for a date range, type a colon between the first and last years, e.g., 1940-1950." The form contains several input fields: "Location-White Pages", "Location-Yellow Pages", "Year", and "Material type". Each field has a small "GO" button next to it. At the bottom, there is a "Submit Query" button and a "Help" icon.

Telephone Books

Are you not finding what you need in our city directory collection? No worries, you might find it in our telephone book collection. See what we have by checking our phone book database.

ON-SITE RESEARCH RESOURCES

Our collection predates computers and so do some of our access points! If you are in the library, be sure to check the following analog files for leads on more resources.

California Information File

In the library? Check the California Information File before you do anything else! This file indexes over 130 years of California articles, books, and manuscript collections from a variety of counties.

Subject Headings: Counties: Ventura

Map File

Looking for an Ventura county map? Our map file is a great place to start. We have a wide variety of maps, including Sanborns, some of which cover settlement patterns and even natural history

Subject Headings: Counties: Ventura

Photographic File

Sometimes a picture is worth a 1000 words and not all of our pictures are online. To check the rest of the collection search our picture file card catalog.

Subject Headings: Counties: Ventura

OTHER ON-SITE RESOURCES

Despite our best efforts, some of our resources defy complete description. We suggest that you ask a librarian about Ventura county information contained in the following resources.

Vertical Files

Our massive collection of vertical files covers a wide variety of topics including individual counties. You can check them for pamphlets, certificates and even posters related to organizations, individuals, and area histories.

Subject Headings: Check with librarians

Postcard Files

Separate from our photo collection, our postcard collection contains a number of images related to Ventura County. Most are not online.

Subject Headings: Check with librarians

OTHER PLACES TO LOOK

Of course the California History Section doesn't have everything, so we suggest that in addition to looking at our collections, you contact the following organizations
