

Sample survey questions:

50% of of early learning providers and parents utilizing Read Together Kits will report increased confidence that they are able to find diverse books to share with young children.

At least 50% of early learning providers and parents utilizing Read Together Kits will identify the Sacramento Public Library as a resource for diverse picture books that support their early literacy efforts.

75% of early learning providers and parents utilizing Read Together Kits will report increasing the number of diverse books they share with young children.

1. Have you checked out a Read Together Kit before?

- Yes
- No

2. Before discovering the Read Together Kits, on a scale of 1-5, how difficult was it for you to find diverse books to share with young children?

- 1 – very difficult
- 2 - somewhat difficult
- 3 - a little bit difficult
- 4 - neither easy nor difficult
- 5 – easy, not a problem

Comment:

3. Please choose the statement that best describes you now, having discovered the Read Together Kits.

- It is much easier to find diverse books to share with young children, now that I've discovered Read Together Kits.
- It is somewhat easier to find diverse books to share with young children, now that I've discovered Read Together Kits.
- I find it equally difficult to find diverse books to share with young children as before discovering Read Together Kits.

4. Where do you go to find diverse picture books to share?

Check all that apply

- Blogs
- Book Award lists
- Book stores
- Recommendations from other people
- Sacramento Public Library

5. Have you been able to increase the number of diverse books that you share with young children?

- Yes, I have been able to share more diverse books with my child or children
- No change, I am sharing the same number of diverse books.

6. Any other comments?