TABLE OF CONTENTS

Named in 1850 after an 1849 resident, Weaverville boasted a population of 3,600 people as of 2010. In addition to having been a major mining center during the gold rush, Weaverville is also home to a sizable historic district (distinctive for the spiral staircases in front of many of the structures) and two museums. If you are looking for exciting local history resources in the California History Section's rich collections, then check out what we have for this city!

GENERAL RESEARCH TIPS

While many of our materials are online, even more are only in hard-copy. You can use the following resources to learn about our Weaverville resources.

Catalog

If you are looking for Weaverville materials your best source is our catalog. You can do a general search on the catalog but also be sure to check out our specialized resources on page 7 of this research guide!

Type in Subject Box: (Weaverville)

California Information File II

Sometimes the catalog doesn't provide as much detail as you might like. This is why we created the California Information File II, successor to the analog California Information File I. In this resource, you can find indexing to individual articles, as well as Weaverville deeds, restaurant menus, pamphlets and more!

GENERAL RESEARCH TIPS

The screenshot shows a search interface for 'City and County Directories'. It includes a header with the title and a background image of city buildings. Below the header, there is a search instruction: 'Enter one or more search terms. The more terms you enter, the fewer results you will get. To search for a range of years, type a colon between the years, e.g., 1940-1950.' The search form contains several fields: 'County', 'City', 'Year', 'Title', 'Author', 'Publisher', and 'Material type'. Each field has a small 'GO' button next to it. At the bottom of the form, there is a larger 'Submit Query' button and a help icon.

City Directories

Looking for a person? How about the history of a location? You can trace this information and more via our city directories! See what we have by checking our specialized database.

The screenshot shows a search interface for 'Telephone Directories'. It includes a header with the title and a background image of a telephone keypad. Below the header, there is a search instruction: 'Type in the city to search. If you get too many results, add the year to your search.' The search form contains several fields: 'Location-White Pages', 'Location-Yellow Pages', 'Year', and 'Material type'. Each field has a small 'GO' button next to it. At the bottom of the form, there is a larger 'Submit Query' button and a help icon.

Telephone Books

Are you not finding what you need in our city directory collection? No worries, you might find it in our telephone book collection. See what we have by checking our phone book database.

ON-SITE RESEARCH RESOURCES

Our collection predates computers and so do some of our access points! If you are in the library, be sure to check the following analog files for leads on more resources.

California Information File

In the library? Check the California Information File before you do anything else! This file indexes over 130 years of California articles, books, and manuscript collections from a variety of counties.

Subject Headings: Counties: Trinity:
Weaverville

Map File

Looking for a Weaverville map? Our map file is a great place to start. We have a wide variety of maps, including Sanborn fire insurance maps. Some of our maps cover settlement patterns and even natural history.

Subject Headings: Trinity County

Photographic File

Sometimes a picture is worth a 1000 words and not all of our pictures are online. To check the rest of the collection search our picture file card catalog.

Subject Headings: Counties: Trinity:
Weaverville

OTHER ON-SITE RESOURCES

Despite our best efforts, some of our resources defy complete description. We suggest that you ask a librarian about Weaver-ville information contained in the following resources.

Vertical Files

Our massive collection of vertical files covers a wide variety of topics including individual cities. You can check them for pamphlets, certificates and even posters related to organizations, individuals, and area histories.

Subject Headings:

Trinity County: Cities A-Z

Subject: Parks: State: Specific: W

Postcard Files

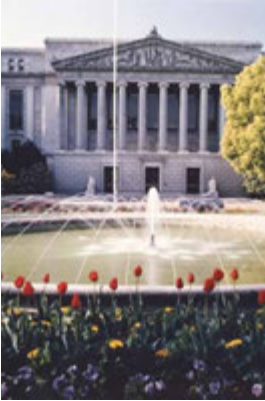

Separate from our photo collection, our postcard collection contains a number of images related to Weaver-ville. Most are not online.

Subject Headings: Trinity County: Weaver-ville
